Since 1972, family-owned West Acres has been the shopping destination of the upper Midwest. More than just a mall, West Acres is a vibrant community center featuring local arts and events plus a philanthropic culture.

Our customers don't just perceive West Acres as a shopping destination; it is an experience where they can shop, dine, play, browse and enjoy one another's company.

As the most visited venue in the region, your company, product or service will gain an incredible amount of visibility in front of thousands of shoppers each day while they're in a purchasing mindset.

We can't wait to work with you!

ADVERTISING POLICY

West Acres reserves the right to refuse to advertise a service, product or event deemed inappropriate for mall audiences, or that is in direct competition with mall tenants. West Acres requires pre-approval of all final creative prior to it being printed and delivered to the mall. Cancellations are due 15 days prior to ad placement in the mall. Materials are due to West Acres on the date determined in your advertising contract. A missed deadline will result in a later-placed advertisement and the advertiser will be billed according to the contracted agreement. Advertisements from lessees with outstanding invoices with the mall are not accepted. West Acres is not responsible for vandalism or defacing of ad materials. If any advertisements are vandalized or defaced, West Acres has the right to remove them, and the advertiser can choose to replace the damaged materials.

PRODUCTION

West Acres is not responsible for the creation or production of any advertisements. All advertisements must be pre-approved by West Acres by emailing marketing@westacres.com. Upon request, West Acres will provide contact information for vendor resources, printing specifications, material, paper stock and creative design recommendations.
